

I am a truck driver and xm is the best tool I have for news traffic and weather. I also use it for entertainment during long stretches of lonley roads to help me stay alert. I really get annoyed at triing to find information on local stations because I either cannot find a local station or they do offer only spotty information only during the rush hours.